Honorable John A. McCone
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCone:

The time for our eleventh annual Career Service Awards draws near once again. As you know, this program has become an outstanding annual career service function in Washington and its success is unquestionably due to the cooperation of government officials such as yourself.

We are enclosing our preliminary announcement and invite you to submit your nominations by December 20, 1964 or sooner, if possible, in accordance with the procedure indicated on reverse side of the announcement. Additional copies of the announcement are being sent to your personnel office.

May we once again request your personal interest in the selection process and offer our thanks for your help in the success of this program.

Sincerely,

Jean J. Couturier

Career Service Awards

OF THE

National Civil Service League

A nonpartisan nonprofit citizens' organization founded in 1881 to promote efficiency in the public service.

PURPOSE

This National Civil Service League program is undertaken to strengthen the public service by bringing national recognition to significant careers in the Federal service.

RECOGNITION

The League will grant awards to ten career employees who exemplify the best characteristics of the career service. Extensive nationwide publicity will be given to the selection and presentation of the awards at a Dinner ceremony in Washington, D. C. This gala dinner will be addressed by a prominent speaker and will be attended by leaders of government, business, education and the professions and by friends and co-workers of the Award recipients.

THE AWARD

BASIS OF SELECTION. The ten winners of the Award will be career employees who have demonstrated —

- EFFICIENCY AND ACHIEVEMENT on an exceptional level, with sustained superior performance and accomplishment.
- CHARACTER showing the highest order of integrity and devotion to the principles of public service.
- SERVICE of at least ten years (including military) with evidence of career progression.
